DETAILED ACTION

This application was filed with original claims 1-22, which were canceled by a preliminary amendment filed on the same day. Since claims should be numbered in a consecutive order, the newly presented claims 25-49 have thus been renumbered as claims 23-47. Applicants are advised to refer to the renumbered claims in any future communications.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 23-44, drawn to a sleeve.

Group II, claim(s) 45-47, drawn to a method for making a sleeve

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: In the Group I invention, the support structure integrated into the sleeve construction between the inner tube and the outer layer and completely penetrates the compressible intermediate layer in a radial direction. In the Group II invention, recesses or radial holes are formed in the compressible intermediate layer and are filled with a material. However, these recesses or holes are not required to completely penetrate the compressible intermediate layer and therefore partial penetration will meet the structural requirement. Accordingly, the sleeve thus made by the recited method could have materials partially penetrate the compressible intermediate layer to fill the recesses or holes and therefore, would be structurally different from the sleeve as defined by the Group I invention. Because Group I invention and Group II invention do not have the same or corresponding special technical features as pointed out above and they fail to relate to a single general invention concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
